BITBURG, GERMANY.

Hail to the blue and the white!

Barons, supreme may they stay!

Where a more glorious sight?

Cheer for a victory today.

Fight! Fight!

On, Barons, on down the field

Fight! Barons, Fight! Show your might!

Raise your Banners high,

Raise them to the sky,

Hail to the blue and the white!

Fight! Fight!

Principal's Message

The distribution of the Bitburg 1966-67 Annual, heralds the end of another school year--one that has been most successful. I wish to congratulate our graduating seniors on a most successful class. It is always gratifying to have students come in from all parts of the United States and the World and mold themselves into a unit working together for the good of the school, the community and ultimately, themselves. Some individuals never make it but most of our seniors have contributed, each in his own way, something worthwhile.

One of the great by-products of one's experience in a dependents school is lasting friendships. These lifelong relationships serve as motivating forces which spur us on in our lifes activities. As the cultivation of friendship becomes a part of our personality and character, so the true friend becomes a part of us - one who shares our pleasure and helps bear our sorrows. Cicero is quoted as saying, "Friendship improves happiness and abatee misery by doubling our joy and dividing our grief."

May we grow in friendships by offering ourselves as friends.

VERDUN

P. Havner scored early in the game on a 5 yd. run for our first TD of the game. In the third quarter, T. Alves ran 15 yards for another Bitburg TD. The 2 point conversion gave us a 14-0 lead. With only four minutes remaining in the game, P. Havner did it again, L. Wills assured our 20-0 win with a fine tackle of a Verdun runner that had broken loose.

BAD KREUZNACH

P. Havner's 55 yd. run of an intercepted pass for a touchdown gave Bitburg a 6-0 win over Bad K for our first win of the season.

MANNHEIM

The Barons first loss was dealt by the Mannheim Bisons in our first league game. Although the fighting Barons scored 6 points on a long pass from C. Ball to T. Alves and a two point conversion, they were set back by the Bisons.

BAUMHOLDER

Bad luck came to the Barons when they took on the underrated Baumholder Bucs. Everytime things were looking our way, a fumble or penalty hampered the drive. The most disheartening play of the game came when M. Charlton's TD was called back because of a holding penalty.

WURZBURG

The Wurzburg Wolves' only victory of the season came when they defeated the Bitburg Barons 6-0 for their homecoming game. They scored with 4 minutes remaining in the game on an intercepted pass. T. Alves, P. Havner, H. Minard, and M. Charlton were the main yard gainers for the Barons, while M. Barnhill and L. Wills starred in defense.

HEILDEBERG

The cold snow morning didn't help the Bitburg Barons' season any as they lost 33-6 to Heidelberg. Our sole TD came on a long bomb thrown to T. Alves by M. Barnhill. Our never-say-die defense wasn't able to hold the Lions, but the effort certainly was there!

AUGSBURG

An early touchdown by P. Havner and an interception runback of 65 yards by M, Barnhill aided the Barons in their 12-8 defeat of the Augsburg Apaches to give Bitburg a victory for Homecoming 1966,

HOMECOMING

The week-long fete of activities included the Whisper Campaign, Stomp the Apache Day, and Blue and White Day. A huge pep rally, accented by a sneak preview of the football game (courtesy of Pep Club), proclaimed the greatness of our mighty Barons.

Friday night the Apache was burned in effigy at a roaring bonfire on the football field. Each class supplied wood for the fire; this competition was won by the Senior Class. Halftime was an array of colorful floats constructed by the various classes and a motor parade of the canidates. Later that evening, Barons celebrated our 12-8 victory over Augsburg at the Homecoming Dance in the school auditorium. The theme was "Autumn Leaves", and it was sponsored by the Senior Class. Lee Wiley was crowned Homecoming Queen by Tony Alves, Team Captain.

SENIOR MIXMASTER CLUB

Standing--Donna Cosser, Joyce Carr, Janie Jones, Pat Guy, Sue Brandt, Diane Dumps, Sitting--Dawn McRae, Vicky Williams, Claudia Daly, Stephanie Mills, Tom Ambrisch

The Senior Mixmaster Club's main objective is to promote social grace in formal situations. Being entirely an after school function, the Juniors and Seniors who meet every three weeks in various clubs and restaurants in the Bitburg area are those students who maintain at least an average of 2.0.

To insure added poise the group assigns table topics, speeches, and the jobs of lexicographer to members on a rotating basis which allows everyone to participate.

Preceding an inexpensive meal is a business meeting which is carried on with Robert's Rules of Order as the reference to all parliamentary procedure.

DEBATE CLUB

THE LEDGER

Standing--Tom Sarpolus, Pat O'Neil, Jackie Pierson, Julie Hazel, Ellie Ostorra, Sherrie Sindelar, Sitting--Louise Carden, Lee Wiley, Claudia Daly, Bill Cate, Sue McEntire, Tina Hintermeier.

The Ledger

With the monthly appearance of the newspaper, the previews of coming events, clarifications regarding Student Council and Administrative policy, and the omnipresent Baron Spy soon became an accepted constituent of the school agenda.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Spencer, upcoming journalists learned the basic techniques of writing for publication. Once uncomprehended words such as "layout", "masthead", "morgue", and others became an accepted addition to their ever-increasing journalistic vocabulary.

CHESS CLUB

Standing--Peggy Holt, Rosemary Salter, David Borger, Carl Wilson, David Berry, Linda James, Robert Wood, Bryon Harrison, Diann Anderson, Mr. Fred Davis, David Kirkland, Lindy Prelip, Sitting--Robin Carlile, Jerry Stover, Sonny Young, Ralph White, Tom Bradley, Roger Tanguay, Sue Driscoll, Jeff Brinkley, Edgar Castillo, Frank Caltrider, John Welnach.

Dedicated to the generating of school spirit, the Pep Club boasted one of the largest memberships among the extra-curricular organizations. Throughout all sports seasons, the club strove to discover new and original methods in which to assist students in exemplifying the elusive Baron Spirit. Under the supervision of Miss Val Jordan, members met each Monday to discuss that week's projects. Membership was open to all students retaining a passing grade while officers must hold a C average. Divided into six squads, each member was assigned certain responsibilities by her squad leader. Reward and discipline were achieved through the formulation of a merit and demerit system.

DRAMA CLUB

The newly formed Drama class this year has sampled a variety of subjects connected with dramatics. The course included a study of the theater, stage techniques, voice and pantomime and aspects of acting. This Christmas season brought to the school their successful and amusing play, "A Cool Yule", which was done entirely by the Drama class. This new course has offered an interesting, enjoyable, and profitable introduction to the living art, drama.

SENIORS

In 1955, most of the Class of '67 was entering first grade and few of us ever dreamed that we would be together as a Senior class in Bitburg, Germany.

In the 9th grade, there were a lot of new faces at BHS but most of us were officially entering high school stateside. It was still one or two years until we arrived in Germany. Life was full with the thrilling activities and traditions of high school. Boy, were Seniors good! There were beatles, "I Want to Hold Your Hand", the loss in Dallas, and "the" thing was to wear your steady's ring around your neck.

Our Sophomore year brought together the main nucleus of the class. We hailed from Massachusetts, Virginia, Colorado, Washington, etc. Before too long, we became welded and began to think and act as one. Freshmen were bad, short, ugly, and stupid and it certainly was a good thing WE never looked like that! Boy, Seniors had it made. The National Election, "Love Potion #9", "Downtown" and Study Hall became one room that year.

As Juniors, we gained a few more and really began to form the Class of '67. We were finally up to the point of getting second hand information about "all that work". How about those Senior Privileges? Nights were spent studying in between coffee sales, building floats, and securing cider for Sadie Hawkins. Our glittering night came with our Junior-Senior Prom and as the Junior Class, we shone forth like a thousand stars. It was the year of the Jerk, "This Diamond Ring", another successful space orbit, James Bond, Army beating Navy, Willy's birthday, madras and discotheques.

Now, we are Seniors. We have gained a lot and are truly a class. There are term papers, government tests, caps and gowns, Mrs. White, Senior Selections, College Boards and Graduation. We are small in number but all the same, Seniors. 1967--Our year--Viet Nam, "Wild Thing", "Is God Dead?", Susann and Ryan, LSD, Batman, Red Guards, Hastings 1066, Yellow Submarines, The Orioles, the space walk, LBJ . . . . . .

CLASS FAVORITES
Carey Harvey and Susie Hsu.

The class of '68 caught its first faint, faraway glimpse of the future upon the realization of finally becoming Juniors. Through a constant battering of special reports, US History, themes, and "monster tests", we were led on by the first inspiring gleam of graduation. The PSAT and other achievement tests we took seemed to make us even more aware that soon we would be leaving the routine of high school for a more adult life. The class attended with joy and a sense of awe, its first formal and class-sponsored dance, the Junior-Senior Prom, and enjoyed the festivities and amusements inherent in high school. The main aim, of course, was the handed-down tradition of sponsoring the Prom, but it was spiced with Sadie Hawkins, Homecoming and B-Week activities, and assuming the coveted title of Seniors '68. But more and more our efforts became concentrated, too, on one goal--entrance into a college or career--and the accompanying increase of freedom and consequently of responsibility.

We proved ourselves to be the "wise fools". Wise in that we did open our eyes, we did begin to comprehend our future.

Foolish, in that we yet saw no real purpose and could not see the graver side of the situation. Probably like every other sophomore class in BHS's lower case history, we took an increasingly active part in school activities. Soon we, too, will respond to the increasingly scholastic pressures and join the hackneyed routine.

This year, we initiated the new tradition of sponsoring the B-Week (basketball homecoming) Dance in February. Among our other activities were the float for Homecoming, oft-winner of the Baron Pep Sword, and the establishment of a full quarter of Baron school spirit.

FRESHMAN CLASS

This September saw the influx of over 180 new faces, bright, eager and a little scared. Shrugging off screams of "Frosh" we set the course for homeroom and a new life! The first challenge, finding our various classes in the jerry-built corridors, came quickly. We staggered into classes such as algebra where we were introduced to such perplexing questions as: "If Billy has seven gold teeth and salami sells at 3 pounds for 59¢, then how many times does the bus run to Bitburg per day?" As we became used to the atmosphere at BHS, we heard many stories from the upperclassmen; tales of when there were 1954 government books, of rain beating on the roof (and on heads when classes changed), stories of terror about Freshman Initiation and worst of all (shudder!) of our future teachers awaiting the chance to enlighten our lives with Shakespeare and subjunctives, reports, and torgue, parabola, and procrastination. But now with our spirit high we look forward to our sophomore year, when we will at last have somebody to pick on!

YEARBOOK STAFF

Looking back over the "66-67" school year, we of the yearbook staff find that it was a very superb learning experience. It was interesting, high spirited, constructive, exciting, adventurous and educational. With so many activities no one could possibly have attended them all.

Class and school spirit reached all-time highs and the Seniors received the best send-off ever given a graduating class at BHS.

We of the staff hope that these few words, your many personal memories of life at BHS, and this yearbook, will help you go on to next year with that feeling of accomplishment.

We extend a special thanks to all those who spent extra time at lunch, after school, and on weekends to make this book possible, and also to Mr. Mageno for his first-rate ideas and handling of the many problems in publishing a yearbook.

To you, a past or future student of B.H.S., Best of Luck and may the spirit of the Mighty Baron be with you wherever you go.

Donna Couser,
