The Daily Bulletin #3 is about me. Under President Johnson's Youth Hire Program, youths were hired during the summer to keep us out of trouble. We were on the flight line and it was lunch time and a forklift was blocking our path. I jumped in the back, turned the wheel and drove it into a truck, busted door and fender.

3. ATTENTION ALL SUPERVISORS: Recently a dependent youth on summer overhire employment was involved in a special purpose vehicle accident. The young man was not experienced in operating the vehicle, was not licensed to drive it, and was not authorized or told to do so. These young people are eager, energetic and in most cases inexperienced. As supervisors you must provide close supervision and adequate instructions to insure that safety procedures are not bypassed due to lack of knowledge or youthful enthusiasm. (DS/6137)

4. CLOSING OF SPANGDAHEM TRASH DUMP: The trash dump in the village of Spangdahlem is closed, effective Monday 3 Jul 67. No more trash may be dumped at this location as the area has been filled up and covered over with new soil. This restriction applies equally to AF personnel residing in the area of Dudeldorf, Gindorf and Pickliessen who have previously disposed of trash in this area. Plans are being made to open a new dump site within the next few days. (OI/6012)

Everyone is invited and anyone can win one of the prizes. Prizes are made according to the Lewis system where shooters are aligned by their scores; highest score is the club champion. The shooters are then divided into three classes depending entirely upon their scores and awards are given according to class winners. Winners are not known until the last shooter has fired. Two prizes will be given in each of three classes and classes will be determined by placing the five highest scores in a class, the next five highest scores in class two and all remaining scores in class three. The top scores (Top two scores) in each class will win a prize and lowest score will win a prize. Price is $3.00 for 100 clay pigeons, the normal price for pigeons alone. The shoot is an unregistered shoot, however, anyone wishing to do so may declare his wishes to shoot for registration, pay an additional dollar and his birds will be registered. Participants must be club members. Prizes include a double barrel shotgun case, a hunting suit, knives, sunglasses and other items.
